

THE PRES

The First Presbyterian Church Pleasant Valley
Vol. 14 No. 4
April 2013

Greetings in the Name of the LORD Jesus Christ,

I am sitting here in the coffee shop with my husband and daughter. We have been chatting and enjoying our coffee. Glancing out the window beyond Bob's shoulder the snow is falling lightly, and its beauty awes me. Although there are many people laughing and talking around us, for a brief second all is quiet as I am lost in reverie of the many afternoons we have spent together as a family. Silently I thank God for each of them.

Victoria rises with the message that she will be gone for awhile and return soon. Bob and I resume our work; studying, researching, and writing for our respective congregations. Although we are together, we are silent. There is comfort in this silence. Time has taught us that we do not always need to fill the space between us with words ... a glance, a touch, an upraised eyebrow speak multitudes.

And that is the way it is in conversations with God. During our prayer time with the LORD it is not necessary to fill every moment with words and sound. The Psalmist declares: "Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him..." (Psalm 37:7). We must develop an easy relationship with God, so we will have the capacity to sit in comfortable silence as we await God's word. Just as with any relationship, becoming comfortable with God is a journey that requires spending time together, patience and determination.

*Blessings on your journey,
Pastor Shawn*

Remembering

Rev. Tom Aikman

A Tribute to Reverend Tom Aikman

The Reverend Dr. Tom G. Aikman was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pleasant Valley from 1972-1988. He retired to his native Scotland in 1988 and became our Pastor Emeritus. Sadly, Tom went home to his Lord and Savior in January of 2013.

The following memories were shared by our parishioners:

Tom Aikman was a learned man, whose sermons always captured our interest. They were full of quotes and biblical references, inspiring us to think and search our hearts. He spoke only as long as he felt it necessary to get his point across, often teetering precariously at the edge of the top step with only a book or bible in hand. His vocal inflections could be gentle or fiery, as the need arose.

Tom's children's sermons were tailored to their young age. His most memorable talk was the year he introduced Mr. Robin, who was heralding the arrival of spring and the new life of the Easter season. Mr. Robin came back every spring thereafter, bringing his cheerful and hopeful message to our children.

Tom cared for all members of his congregation. Though he had no children of his own, he was very fond of our youngsters. For many years after his retirement, we could see the marks on his office doorway where he measured the heights of several of the boys, checking their growth on a weekly basis. He never seemed to mind that they were interrupting his writing or studying. He made himself available to our youth group as well, accompanying them to various other houses of worship. He was discouraged from doing too much of the driving, however; as one member put it, after visiting Tom in Scotland, "Driving with Tom was a white-knuckling experience."

Tom was always mindful of the needs of his congregation. When he suspected that one of our families might be having trouble with their child's college costs, he suggested that their yearly pledge to the church could be cut back. They decided against such a move, but were always thankful for his consideration.

Tom had the courage to confront local cult leaders when they ensnared one of our members, and he vigorously attacked the new school policy which encouraged sports and music activities on Sunday mornings. On the other hand, he was not judgmental when it came to church attendance. One member shared the fact that her Dad, who did not attend church, was very fond of Tom; he appreciated a man like himself, who had love for all creatures and wasn't afraid to "celebrate" with him on special occasions.

Tom grew up on a farm in Scotland and never lost his interest in agriculture. He was always willing to help out in the field or in the hay mow. During one of our annual choir picnics, Tom noticed a new-born calf in the field. With no regard to this Sunday clothes, he carried the 75 pound calf to the safety of the barn, some two hundred yards away.

During Tom's tenure with us he performed many marriage ceremonies. During his pre-nuptial talks and again during each ceremony, he stressed four important facts:

1. Neither of you is perfect, so you must look at each other with forgiving eyes.
2. Be faithful to each other, in word and deed.
3. Keep your individuality, even as you are joined together as man and wife.
4. Help your marriage to thrive through your continued involvement with church. All things are easier with God in your life.

Tom's favorable views on marriage were undoubtedly fostered by his 50-year marriage to his loving wife, Eiluned.

Another favorite ministerial duty was performing baptisms. In 1982 he baptized his first set of twins, an exciting experience for him; all parties behaved admirably. In 1988, just before he retired, he baptized the babies from five different families during the same service. That was a memorable day.

Tom was interested in community involvement as well. He was the long-time chaplain of the local fire company, and he was much sought after as a speaker at various group meetings. He was a virtual encyclopedia of information on Scottish history, an admirer of the Royal Family (most of them) and an expert on his beloved Robert Burns.

After all his years in America, Tom never lost his Scottish accent. The Psalms became the Sams, and Palm Sunday was Pam Sunday. There was one hymn in which the word "palm" was rhymed with "lamb". Many members of the congregation smiled to think that our minister must have been responsible for the rhyme scheme.

It was a sad day for everyone when Tom and Eiluned boarded their plane and flew back to Scotland. Memories of them both are still vivid and frequent. Our congregation was truly blessed.

Mother Daughter Dinner Friday, May 3rd at 6 pm

We will be having our annual mother/daughter dinner on Friday, May 3rd. Remember, we are all daughters, so you have no excuse for not coming, the more the merrier. The cost is $7 for adults and $4 for ages 6 – 12 and free for age 5 and under. Chicken is on the menu, cooked and served by the men. This year Samantha & Layla Kirchoff will speak to us about their mission trip. To make reservations, please call Linda Morzy (226-6402).

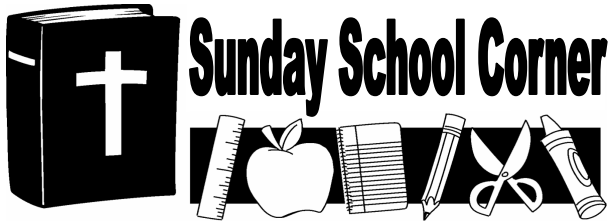

Adams' Cards

As you start to "think spring" please plan to purchase an Adams Gift Card from Helen Traver on Sunday mornings or from Wendy at the church office on Tuesday mornings. The cards are available in $25, $50 and $100 denominations and can be used in any department of any Adams Fairacre Farms store.

The church buys cards in bulk at which time Adams gives us an extra 10% more cards. When they are all sold we have made money for our church programs. As your gift and purchase gets you full value of the card, the purchase price is not tax deductible but the more we use them, the more funds we have available for our church use! So far we have made about $700 for our church in 2013.

Many thanks to the faithful shoppers who consistently purchase cards and make this program successful. This program may be the brightest spot in our economy's rising prices.

Fresh fruits and vegetables, meats, plants, garden supplies, gifts - happy shopping!

A WISE SNACK

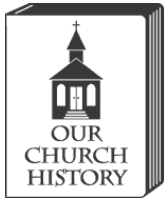

Believing in the message of the cross makes you wise. This treat is a great reminder to be wise in God's ways.

What you need:

- Slice of whole wheat bread
- Circle cookie cutter (or jar lid)
- Butter knife
- Nut butter (peanut, hazelnut, etc.)
- Toasted oat cereal
- 2 banana slices
- 1 cashew
- 2 chocolate chips

What you do:

1. Cut a circle from the bread to be the owl's head. Then cut out a small semi-circle atop that bread circle to resemble pointy ears.
2. With a knife, spread the nut butter on the bread.
3. Place cereal along the top of head, from ear to ear.
4. Place banana slices for eyes.
5. Dip the chocolate chips in nut butter and place them in the middle of the banana slices.
6. Place a cashew for the nose between the bananas.
7. Enjoy – and be wise to God's message!

THE HISTORY CORNER

By Joan Traver

THIS EARTHEN VESSEL

The first edition of "This Earthen Vessel – A History of the Pleasant Valley Presbyterian Church 1765 – 1965" was written in 1965 to commemorate the church's 200th anniversary. Research of church records and other materials was done by Clifford Buck, lifelong church member and professional historian. The text was written by Joan Traver. A second edition is currently being written. It will be a revision of the first and a continuation of the church's story, spanning the next 50 years.

What is an "Earthen Vessel?" In olden times it was a pottery jar that often held a precious commodity. In arid lands that might have been water. In the Cumran Caves it was the Dead Sea Scrolls.

Our church is like such a vessel. It is the outer shell or façade that holds the inner treasure of the Gospel. Although the Gospel remains the same, "We have this treasure in earthen vessels." It is easy to confuse the vessel with the treasure. Our local church was born in pre-Revolutionary, Colonial times and the vessel has gone through many changes. Buildings have been constructed, demolished, rebuilt and expanded. Membership has waxed, waned and diversified. Attitudes and behaviors have changed enormously. Divisions have always existed and will undoubtedly continue because the vessel, composed of both buildings and people, is imperfect but the treasure within, the Gospel message of redemption, remains the same.
